Description of Program Service One

Education and Public Outreach

LCA strives to educate the public about animal cruelty and exploitation through websites, brochures, email alerts, mailings and newsletters. All of these educational tools are valuable resources for the public as they contain information on a variety of animal rights issues, encourage readers to take action and provide an opportunity to update members about LCA activities.

LCA's newsletter, "Fighting Chance," reaches 150,000 members and the main website (www.LCAanimal.org) receives over 300,000 hits a month. LCA's e-mail action alerts ask for "Calls to Action" from members about issues needing urgent attention. Members are e-mailed information and asked to send an e-mail, letter or fax or make a phone call to help bring about needed changes for animals.

LCA's founder and president, Chris DeRose, is frequently interviewed for television and radio programs, newspapers and magazines, nationally and internationally. He also travels both in the U.S. and abroad, giving lectures and educating the public about animal rights. Countless people have read or heard about LCA and Chris DeRose through the 40-50 interviews in 2016.

Locally, LCA and the Animal News Van (ANV), attends special events, conferences, schools and fundraisers. LCA's custom-made, donated ANV is equipped with two large plasma televisions screens, a speaker system and led ticker tape. The ANV uses the powerful medium of video to educate citizens about the current conditions animals live in by showing investigative reports and disseminating breaking news stories. Attendees at each event range from 30-300.

Ringling Ends the Elephant Act - After decades of protests, public outreach and education by LCA and many other supporters, Ringling Bros. Circus finally ended its elephant act on May 1, 2016. The two final shows took place simultaneously in Providence, RI and Wilkes Barre, PA. LCA led a widely publicized demonstration outside of the Wilkes-Barre show which was featured on both local television and in national press. This is a long overdue victory for circus elephants. LCA will keep fighting for the elephants that have been "retired" to the Ringling Bros. Center for Elephant Conservation, where they are being subjected to cancer research, bred for entertainment, chained up at night, and loaned to zoos. In June 2016, LCA co-organized a major protest at Ringling Bros. first elephant-free Los Angeles show, urging them to become 100% animal-free. LCA continues to put the pressure on Ringling and all other circuses until animals are no longer exploited and forced to commit unnatural acts for the sake of entertainment.

Stopping Passage of Unconstitutional Ag-Gag Bills - LCA is fighting against freedom-crushing ag-gag laws, legislation that outlaws recording at factory farms and prevents whistleblowers from exposing animal abuse, worker harassment, unsafe working conditions, and other illegal and unethical activities. The more the public is learning about these insidious bills, the more difficult it's becoming for Big Agriculture to get them passed. In 2016, Missouri Bill HB 1414 was introduced. The bill would have created an "information blackout" for factory farms and puppy mills - blocking the public from learning about animal cruelty, toxic pollution and human health hazards like infectious diseases. Tens of thousands signed LCA's petition against HB 1414, and on July 8, 2016, governor Jay Nixon vetoed the dangerous bill. LCA continues to monitor ag-gag bills as they arise and work to stop them from becoming law.

Saving Mountain Gorillas - For over a decade, LCA has provided long-standing support to the Ugandan and Rwandan Wildlife Authorities in the conservation of the critically endangered mountain gorillas. There are only about 900 mountain gorillas left in the world, all in the Virunga Volcanoes Massif mountain range in Uganda, Rwanda and Congo. In 2016, LCA's campaign turned to supporting war-torn Virunga National Park in the Congo, where rangers risk their lives daily to protect the land and the wildlife from poachers and rebel militia. 150 Virunga rangers have been killed in the past decade protecting the park and the wildlife. LCA provided Virunga's AirWing Program with airplane bush wheels, mobile LED airstrip lighting and tool chests. LCA also purchased a Cessna 206 aircraft that is being outfitted to join the AirWing in early 2017. A functional and modern AirWing program provides the best possible tool to secure the park and reduce threats to Virunga's rangers and wildlife population.

Description of Program Service Two

Investigations:

Last Chance for Animals (LCA), often referred to as the "FBI of Animal Rights," is widely known for its Special Investigation Unit (SIU) that conducts in-depth investigations to expose horrible cruelty and misuse of animals. The SIU team focuses on validating information, detecting suspect activity, exposing illegal or unethical activities and reporting them to local, state and federal authorities for prosecution. The information obtained in LCA's investigations is used to develop campaigns, provide grassroots education and outreach to the public, and to help in drafting legislation that will bring lasting changes for the animals. The scope of LCA's investigations includes, but is not limited to: pet theft, class "B" dealers, puppy mills, pound seizure, circus cruelty, elephants in captivity, animals used in entertainment, vivisection and pharmaceuticals manufactured from the demise of animals.

Beluga Whale Cruelty Exposed - In early 2016, LCA's five-month undercover investigation into Marineland Canada, that exposed shocking abuse and neglect of beluga whales, was released. LCA submitted a complaint to the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals alleging violations of the OSPCA Act. The complaint detailed Marineland's care of whales that falls below prescribed standards in medical treatment, food, protection from elements, water quality and psychological well-being. LCA is urging Canadian Parliament to pass the Ending the Captivity of Whales and Dolphins Act (Bill S-203), which would prevent this tragedy from being inflicted upon future whales by banning their capture, confinement, breeding and sale.

Ending the Dog Meat Trade in China - LCA's Special Investigation Unit has a full-time team in China since May of 2015 documenting and providing undercover footage of the dog meat industry. LCA's campaign, www.StopDogMeat.com is focused on ending the dog meat trade and the annual Yulin Dog Meat Festival. Every year, an estimated 10 million dogs are killed for their meat in China. The dogs are trucked long distances in cramped wire cages before they are tortured, beaten, boiled or skinned alive.

LCA's undercover investigation team continues to document and expose China's dog meat industry and provide information to authorities to get the slaughterhouses shut down. The information is also being used to provide support to get legislation passed in China that will outlaw the dog meat industry.

In 2016, LCA also began focusing on ending the dog meat trade in South Korea. Working with local activists on the ground in South Korea, LCA used undercover footage and photos of both China and South Korea's dog meat trade to hold anti-dog meat protests outside the South Korean Embassy in Los Angeles in July 2016. LCA is also working with key politicians both in the United States and South Korea to educate the public and bring an end to the dog meat trade.

Class B Dealers Finally Out of Business - In 2016, Class B dealers were no longer able to renew their licenses, effectively putting them out of business. This is a historic victory which came about in December 2015, when the U.S. Congress passed a ban of all funding of USDA Class B licenses for dealers selling "random source" dogs and cats to medical research. This victory follows more than 35 years of investigations, prosecutions and campaigns against Class B dealers by LCA. In October 2014, the National Health Institute of Health (NIH), the largest funder of biomedical research in the US, announced they stopped funding research that involved dogs obtained from USDA licensed Class B dealers. LCA has played a leading role in the investigation, prosecution and conviction of USDA licensed Class B dealers, who provide "random source dogs" (often stolen pets) to research facilities for cruel and invasive experiments. Class B dealers are known for the horrible abuses they inflict on the animals and the filthy conditions they are kept in. This NIH ban follows a similar ban involving cats from Class B dealers which was adopted in 2012. In 2003, LCA concluded a 15-year investigation into B dealers and handed the case over to the U.S. Attorney's office which prompted the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) to charge the largest and most notorious dealer with more than 100 violations of the animal welfare act. This was the first time a U.S. Attorney's office took on an animal rights case. LCA's SIU undercover operations obtained 70 hours of footage and proof of horrendous abuse at the B dealer's property. In 2005, the same dealer was fined the largest fine ever imposed by the USDA and his license was permanently revoked. In 2006, civil and criminal charges were settled against the B dealer. This precedent setting case is a big win for the animals and has set case law. Due to this Federal felony conviction, this B dealer can no longer vote, bear arms, have any dealing with animals in any way and must report to a probation officer. LCA's harrowing investigation into this class B dealer was the subject of HBO's America Undercover 2006 documentary, "Dealing Dogs". Hundreds of dog dealers have been put out of business or quit in large part due to LCA's work.
